

Korean Re Donated to Support Earthquake Victims in Turkiye

Korean Re has donated USD 100,000 to the Korean Red Cross to support earthquake victims in Turkiye, joining emergency relief efforts to provide aid to those suffering from the recent earthquake in the country.

The fund will be used for emergency relief assistance by providing food, shelters, and other urgently needed essentials to the most vulnerable and severely affected people in Turkiye.

CEO Jong-Gyu Won of Korean Re expressed his heartfelt condolences to the earthquake victims and said, “We pray for hope and solidarity in the recovery of the affected people and communities and convey best wishes to those who are still struggling against the unfortunate disaster.”
